

April Films at the Cincinnati Art Museum

Cincinnati World Cinema

www.CincyWorldCinema.org

Saturday, April 12 12:30 and 3:00 pm

After a sold-out run last November, this uplifting and powerful documentary film returns for two encore screenings.

The true story of Japanese American artist Jimmy Mirikitani, a survivor of the U.S. internment camps in World War II, who wound up homeless on the streets of New York.

A celebration of the resilience of the human spirit and the healing power of art, friendship and compassion.

Admission is $7.00 for Art Museum members and students with current ID, $9.00 for the general public.

Saturday, April 19 2:00 pm

Student Short Documentary Showcase, presenting short films by the students at Clark Montessori School. Post-film discussion with filmmaker Pamela Thomas.

Admission is FREE for all high school students with current ID, $5.00 for the general public.

Tues Apr 22 ~ Weds Apr 23 ~ Tues Apr 29 ~ Weds Apr 30 7:00 pm

Oscar Shorts Our 7th Annual presentation of the Oscar-nominated live-action & animated short films, including the Academy Award winners. Two different programs of 6 shorts each, featuring international films from Belgium, Canada, Denmark, France, Italy, Poland, Russia and the UK.

Admission is $7.00 for Art Museum members and students with current ID, $9.00 for the general public.

More Info: Film details, trailers, discussion leaders, tickets and directions, etc. - call 859.781.8151 or visit the website.

CincyWorldCinema.org

Tickets – online, by phone, the Art Museum, and at these locations...

Sitwell's, Clifton | Lookout Joe, Mt. Lookout | Coffee Emporium, Downtown | Shake It, Northside