

This Holiday Season ...

Treat yourself to something unique and special - two wonderful films you will not see anywhere else.

(And our dinner-and-a-movie combination makes a wonderful gift.)

Tuesday – Thursday,
November 27 – 29, 7 pm
Cincinnati Art Museum

An intimate exploration of the lingering wounds of WWII and the healing powers of friendship and art, this uplifting film has garnered many awards from audiences, juries and critics for best documentary and best direction.

Homecoming: Director Linda Hattendorf, an area native and U.C. graduate, will return to Cincinnati to speak at the screenings.

THE CATS OF MIRIKITANI

Forever

Tuesday – Thursday,
December 18 – 20, 7 pm
Cincinnati Art Museum

A meditation on love, remembrance and the immortal power of art. Dutch director Heddy Honigmann travels to the Père-Lachaise in Paris for an emotionally moving visit with those who honor artists such as Chopin, Modigliani, Oscar Wilde, Maria Callas, Jim Morrison, Yves Montand & Simone Signoret.

Film synopses, speaker bios, ticket & dinner details are available at the CWC website or by phone. Screenings are at 7:00, doors open at 6:30. The Art Museum offers easy access and free parking.

Tickets are available on-line, by phone, at the Cincinnati Art Museum, Sitwell's (Clifton), Lookout Joe Coffee Roasters (Mt. Lookout Square), Shake-It (Northside) and the Coffee Emporium (Downtown).
